Viral Traffic Explained

Viral traffic is all the rage currently and with good reason. Traffic is one of the key components to any successful website, and without it you might as well just pack up and go home. Viral traffic is so good because it is a mechanism to send traffic to your site without you having to do a thing.

No more posting articles. No more expensive pay per click campaigns. You do your thing and you let the viral traffic do its thing. Leaving you to concentrate on pushing your business forward.

Now if you think that sounds far fetched then imagine this for a second. Imagine if you could generate traffic just by browsing the internet. Now that would be pretty cool. If you could simply surf the internet and in return people were pulled towards your website.

Well stop imagining right this second because that's exactly what's going to happen. Yep that's right, you are going to get rewarded for surfing the internet. Just by typing new web addresses into your browser you are going to get rewarded with tons of laser targeted traffic right where you want them.

So let's have a look and see exactly how we are going to achieve this step by step.

FREE Traffic: Step 1

Instant Buzz is a system whereby you install a non obtrusive, spyware free toolbar. This toolbar displays adverts from other users in a fairly non-obtrusive way. No flashing lights, no annoying pop-ups. Just simple text adverts from other Instant Buzz users.

You can see the FREE Instant Buzz toolbar right this second by clicking the link below.

Now here comes the best part. In exchange for viewing other people's adverts in your browser other people will be VIEWING your advert in their browser.

Now let's just go back a second. You install a simple toolbar onto your browser and view other adverts from other users. And in return your advert is blasted to any of the other 55,000 users currently out there.

So the more you surf, the more your advert gets displayed and so the more visitors you get. And you no what visitors mean. Yep that's right, you are going to get paid just for surfing the internet. No I don't know about you but that sounds like a pretty impressive business formula to me.

Put it this way, I'd much rather get paid for surfing the internet than I would shovling lumps of coal. And the best part is now you can get diverted from your work by checking out how your favourite sports team are doing while at the same time justifying it as work. While your finding out that your team lost again some hungry prospect is viewing your ad, visiting your site and buying your product.

All together now.....Three cheers for viral traffic!

FREE Traffic: Step 3

Once you have clicked download you will now find the Instant Buzz toolbar sitting nicely at the top of your browser. Check out the screenshot below to see just how pretty your new toolbar should look once you have installed.

From this point onwards every time you surf the net you will earn credit which will result in you advert being shown to other users.

In case you haven't realized this is a fantastic reason for two reasons. The reason is that at the screenshot above says this toolbar is going to drop a metric ton of FREE traffic on your website. The second reason is that you get to have this metric ton of traffic dropped on your site for FREE without actually doing anything different at all.

I mean, you are going to surf the net anyway right? Of course! You are going to spend too much time checking out how your favourite sports team did at the weekend? Of course! So why not get traffic for doing just that.

I know that I will never surf the net without Instant Buzz again. Getting paid for surfing just feels too damn good...

FREE Traffic: Turbo Charged

If you thought that getting FREE visitors in exchange for surfing the net was good then brace yourself. In fact, make sure you are sat down and that you are surrounded by a nice calm environment. Because what I'm about to tell you is going to make you even happier than dropping a metric ton of traffic on your site for zero cost.

You see it works like this. You surf, your ad gets displayed and you get visitors. Sounds pretty good so far. But hand on just one second, because it's going to get a whole lot better.

Instant Buzz really is a completely viral traffic generation system. Every single person that you refer to Instant Buzz ends up joining your infinity stream. What this means is that if you refer John Smith to use Instant Buzz you will get your advert displayed every single time he uses the internet as well!

Now, if you are not completely excited by this proposition right now then it's probably time for you to close this window and go get a job at Burger King.

You don't have to pay any money. But you do get free visitors. And if you can also recommend this excellent FREE service to others just like you then you will get even more FREE visitors.

I guess that the question is why are you still here and not getting people to sign up for your Instant Buzz infinity stream?!

Targeted traffic equals profit by the bucket load if your site sells. And now you have just figured out an incredibly effective way to get targeted traffic for FREE. So get surfing and start earning!
